DETAILED ACTION

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-22 are allowed.

Claim 1: Prior art of record does not teach a decrypting module for retrieving the cipher key through the cipher-key acquiring module, retrieving the encrypted information from the storage module, and decrypting the encrypted information using the cipher key to recover the associated with the subscriber when the information associated with the subscriber needs to be used, and wherein when the decrypting module retrieves the cipher key through the cipher key acquiring module, the cipher-key acquiring module transmits the input once or more to the cipher-key generating module, and then receives the cipher key generated once or more by the cipher-key generating module in response to the input.

Claim 8: Prior art of record does not teach a decrypting module for retrieving the cipher key through the cipher-key acquiring module, retrieving the encrypted information from the storage module, and decrypting the encrypted information using the cipher key to recover the information associated with the subscriber when the information associated with the subscriber needs to be used, and wherein when the decrypting module retrieves the cipher key through the cipher key acquiring module, the cipher-key acquiring retrieves the random input stored in the storage module, transmits the random input once more to the cipher-key generating module, and then receives the cipher key generated once or more by the cipher-key generating module in response to the random input.

Claims 13,19: Prior art of record does not teach encrypting the information associated with the subscriber using the cipher key to generate an encrypted information and when the information associated with the subscriber needs to be used, transmitting the input once or more to the cipher-key generating module, receiving the cipher key generated once or more by the cipher-key generating module in response to the input, and decrypting the encrypted information using the cipher key to recover the information associated with the subscriber.

Art Unit: 2135

Claims 2-7,9-12,14-18,20-22 are allowed because of dependency.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
